3°only fully paid-up shares may be redeemed.

6.7. The Company may issue "redeemable shares" provided that a General Meeting decides to do so with the quorum and majority requirements set forth under article 10.2. (v) herebelow and that the redemption thereof is subject to the following conditions 1) the redemption must be authorised by the Articles before the redeemable shares are subscribed for (for which purposes this article 6.7 will be construed as authorization); 2) the shares must be fully paid-up; 3) the terms and conditions for the redemption must be laid down in the Articles; 4) redemption can only be made by using sums available for distribution (meaning that (I) the net assets of the Company further to such redemption can not become lower than the amount of the subscribed share capital plus the reserves which may not have been distributed under law or by virtue of the Articles and (II) that the amount of the redemption may not exceed the amount of the profit at the end of the last financial year plus any profits carried forward and any amounts drawn from reserves which are available for that purpose, less any losses carried forward and sums to be placed to reserve in accordance with the law or the Articles) or the proceeds of a new issue made with a view to carry out such redemption; 5) an amount equal to the nominal value, or, in the absence thereof, the accounting par value, of all the shares redeemed must be included in a reserve which can not be distributed to the shareholders except in the event of a reduction in the subscribed capital; the reserve may only be used to increase the subscribed capital by capitalisation of reserves; 6) (5) shall not apply to a redemption using the proceeds of a new issue made with a view to carry out such redemption; 7) where provision is made for the payment of a premium to shareholders in consequence of a redemption, the premium may be paid only from sums which are available for distribution in the sense that they do not reduce the net assets below the amount of the subscribed share capital plus the reserves which may not have been distributed under law or by virtue of the Articles; 8) notice of redemption shall be published in accordance with the Law.

Art. 7. Transfer of Shares.

7.1. All transfer of Shares (and transfer of shares shall mean any transfer undertaken in any manner indicated in articles 7.2. to 7.8. herebelow, including but not limited to Transfer of Shares as defined under article 7.2.1 here below, transfer by way of enforcement, but excluding transfers mortis causa, subject to the Law) shall require: (i) a transfer instrument in writing signed by transferor and transferee and (ii) entering in the Company's Register of Shares of a declaration of transfer duly dated and signed by the transferor and the transferee or by their authorised representatives, and by the Company to evidence acceptance.

The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Company's Register of Shares.

Any transfer of Shares shall be subject to the provisions of articles 7.2. to 7.9. herebelow and shall be accompanied by such evidence as the Management Board may require establishing that the transfer is made in compliance with the terms and conditions of such provisions.

The Management Board may therefore decline to register any transfer of Shares (whether fully paid up or not) in the event that the evidence provided should not prove satisfactory. Specifically, any transfer of shares made in favour of a legal entity shall be registered only in the Company's Register of Shares to the extent such legal entity meets all the requirements to qualify as a Legal Entity Shareholder as set out in article 7.2.1.(e).

Notwithstanding anything contained in this article, no transfer of Shares shall be registered where in the opinion of the Management Board the transferee is in a position to wield substantial influence over any firm or company which is in competition (as defined under article 7.2.2.(b) herebelow) with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and specifically with GBSA (as Subsidiaries and GBSA are defined in article 17.4. below), and subject to such provisions of article 7.2.2. (b) to 7.2.2. (d).

7.2. Intervivos transfers.

7.2.1. A shareholder may freely proceed with a Transfer of Share(s) held by him to any person entitled to hold Shares and for this purpose, the expression "person entitled to hold Shares" shall mean:

(a) Any of the following descendants of Manuel María González Ángel, founder in 1835 of the original business (the González Family):

- Pedro González Gordon Soto
- Carlos González Gordon Soto
- Manuel González Gordon Soto
- Ricardo González Gordon Soto
- Gabriel González Gordon Soto
- Álvaro González Gordon Soto
- Fernando González Gordon Soto

(b) Any lineal descendant (both male and female) of any of the persons named in (a) above.

(c) The spouse of a person within a category (a) or (b) above unless divorced or legally separated, or the widow or widower of any such person until remarriage of such widow or widower with a person not entitled to hold Shares.

(d) Any Trustee approved by the Management Board who provides evidence satisfactory to the Management Board that the Shares are held in trust for one or more or for a class consisting exclusively of persons within category (a), (b) or (c) hereabove and who lodges with the Management Board a certificate in the following terms or in any other form which the Management Board, acting on the recommendation of the Supervisory Board further to article 11.2.(xii) below, shall approve:

"We confirm that theShares in González Byass & Co Ltd, S.A. will be held by us in trust exclusively for persons within categories (a), (b) or (c) of Article 7.2.1. of the Articles of Association of González Byass & Co, Ltd. S.A.".

(e) Any legal entity fully and exclusively owned by persons within category (a), (b) or (c) above, to the extent such legal entity remains at all times as fully and exclusively owned by the aforementioned persons and provided the articles of association of such legal entity contains at all times the regime of limitations to the transferability of shares indicated in Schedule I hereto (the Legal Entity Shareholder).

Without prejudice to the above, the 37,752 Shares owned by González Investments LLC will be considered to be held by a Legal Entity Shareholder notwithstanding that the articles of association of such entity do not contain the regime of limitations to the transferability of shares indicated in Schedule I hereto. However, the acquisition by González Investments LLC of any Share(s) in addition to the mentioned 37,752 Shares shall be entered into the Company's Register of Shares and therefore the Company shall recognize González Investments LLC as owner of such Share(s) only to the extent the articles of association of such legal entity contains at all times the regime of limitations to the transferability of shares indicated in Schedule I. If that were to be the case, only the Share(s) exceeding the mentioned 37,752 Shares shall be subject to the regime of limitations to the transferability of shares indicated in Schedule I.

For the purposes of this article 7, the expression "Transfer of Share(s)" means any transaction which has as a purpose, or will result in, the transfer of Share(s) or of a right in rem on Share(s), for valuable consideration or for free, the granting of options to purchase or sell Shares or the conclusion of a swap or another agreement, so that a complete or partial transfer of the economic benefits, the ownership, or the voting rights of the Share(s) shall occur, regardless of whether such a transaction is realized by means of delivery of securities, in cash or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, any transfer of Share(s) resulting from any corporate reorganization of a Legal Entity Shareholder, such as contributions, exchange transactions, transfer of universality of assets, mergers, de-merger, absorptions, conversions, migrations, liquidations or similar transactions of a Legal Entity Shareholder shall constitute a Transfer of Share(s).

An acquisition by the Company of its own Shares (whether issued as redeemable shares or not) initiated by any shareholder of the Company who directly offers part or all of his Shares of the Company to the Company for redemption shall not constitute a Transfer of Share(s) -and the above procedure shall not apply. Such an acquisition of own Shares is directly subject to article 6.6. or article 6.7., as the case may be, of the Articles. This article 7 shall, however, apply to those Shares offered to the Company for redemption which the Company is not in a position to acquire pursuant to articles 6.6 and 6.7 or the Law.

For the avoidance of doubt, any transfer of Share(s) resulting from any corporate reorganization of the Company, such as contributions, exchange transactions, transfer of universality of assets, mergers, de-merger, absorptions, conversions, migrations, liquidations or similar transactions of the Company shall be governed by the provisions of article 10.2.(v) herebelow and the provisions of the Law and shall not constitute a Transfer of Share(s).

7.2.2. Any Transfer of Share(s), other than a Transfer of Share(s) made under article 7.2.1., shall be subject to the following provisions:

(a) A shareholder (the Transferor Shareholder) who proposes to undertake a Transfer of Share(s) shall notify the Chairman of the Management Board and the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the proposed transfer in writing stating the identity of the transferee (the Transferee), the price or consideration of the offered Shares (the Offered Shares), the payment terms and the remaining terms and conditions of the proposed transfer (the Transfer Notice). The Transfer Notice shall also include a representation made by the Transferor Shareholder that the Transferee has been informed (i) of the pre-emptive acquisition rights provided for in this article 7 and (ii) that in case the Transferor Shareholder is free to transfer the Offered Shares pursuant to section (j) below, the Transferee shall enter into a reciprocal put and call option agreement with the Company as set out in the mentioned section. The Transferor Shareholder shall attach to the Transfer Notice a copy of the firm and irrevocable purchase offer made by the Transferee.

(b) Should the Chairman of the Management Board or the Chairman of the Supervisory Board consider that the Transferee is a competitor of the Company or of any of its Subsidiaries, and specifically of GBSA, or belongs to a competitor group of companies, either one of them shall, within two (2) calendar days after receipt of the Transfer Notice, convene a General Meeting to be held twenty-one (21) days after remission of the convening notices (the Competitor General Meeting) and notify the Transferor and the Chairman of the other corporate body (the Competitor General Meeting Notification). At this Competitor General Meeting, at least two thirds (2/3) of the non-conflicted share capital of the Company shall be present or represented at first call; and one third (1/3) of the non-conflicted share capital of the Company shall be present or represented at second call, so that the same resolves about the proposed Transfer of Share(s), either approving or denying it, for which a resolution shall be passed by a two third (2/3) majority vote of the votes cast by all non-conflicted attendees present or represented.

In case the Competitor General Meeting denies the proposed Transfer of Shares, the resolution shall expressly set out that it is based on the fact that the Transferee is a competitor of the Company or of any of its Subsidiaries or belongs to a competitor group.

For these purposes, a "competitor" is any person or entity engaged in any part of the world, in the same or analogous business as GBSA (as such company is defined in article 17.4. herebelow), either directly or indirectly, through its association with, control or ability to be controlled by a person or entity engaged, directly or indirectly, in the same or analogous business as GBSA (the Business).

(c) In case no such Competitor General Meeting is called by the Chairman of the Management Board and no Competitor General Meeting Notification is received by him from the Chairman of the Supervisory Board (within three (3) calendar days after receipt of the Transfer Notice), the Chairman of the Management Board shall, at the earliest six (6) calendar days and at the latest eight (8) calendar days after receipt of the Transfer Notice, notify the Transferor Shareholder (the Purchase Price Notification) of (i) the Annual Price (as such term is defined in article 15.1. below), and of (ii) the resulting purchase price calculated on the basis of the Annual Price, by multiplying the number of Offered Shares by the Annual Price (the Purchase Price) at which all shareholders registered with the Company's Register of Shares other than the Transferor Shareholder (the Non-Transferor Shareholders) or, subsidiarily, the Company, may exercise their pre-emptive acquisition right of the Offered Shares. A copy of such Purchase Price Notification shall likewise be sent by the Chairman of the Management Board to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board at the same time.

(d) In case a Competitor General Meeting is held and approves the proposed Transfer of Share(s) with the quorum and majority requirements set forth under article 10.2.(v) herebelow, the procedure provided for in this article 7.2.2. shall continue. The Chairman of the Management Board shall then notify the Transferor Shareholder within the three (3) calendar days following the holding of such Competitor General Meeting of (i) the resolution passed by the Competitor General Meeting, (ii) the Annual Price (as such term is defined in article 15.1. below), and of (iii) the resulting purchase price calculated on the basis of the Annual Price, by multiplying the number of Offered Shares by the Annual Price (the Purchase Price) at which all shareholders registered with the Company's Register of Shares other than the Transferor Shareholder (the Non-Transferor Shareholders) or, subsidiarily, the Company, may exercise their pre-emptive acquisition right of the Offered Shares (the Competitor and Purchase Price Notification).

In case a Competitor General Meeting is held and denies the proposed Transfer of Share(s), the Chairman of the Management Board shall notify the Transferor Shareholder within the three (3) calendar days following the holding of such Competitor General Meeting of such resolution taken in accordance with 7.2.2. (b) hereabove.

(e) Should the Transferor Shareholder disagree with the Purchase Price, he shall notify the Chairman of the Management Board likewise in the three (3) calendar days following the receipt of (i) the Purchase Price Notification under 7.2.2. (c) or (ii) the Competitor and Purchase Price Notification under 7.2.2. (d), as the case may be (the Transferor Shareholder Notice on the Purchase Price).

In case the Chairman of the Management Board has not received a Transferor Shareholder Notice on the Purchase Price within ten (10) calendar days after (i) the Purchase Price Notification under 7.2.2. (c) or (ii) the Competitor and Purchase Price Notification under 7.2.2. (d), as the case may be, the Transferor Shareholder is considered to agree with the Purchase Price.

In case of disagreement by the Transferor Shareholder with the Purchase Price, the Chairman of the Management Board shall convene a meeting of the Management Board within five (5) calendar days after receipt of the Transferor Shareholder Notice on the Purchase Price, to appoint an independent auditor, who shall not be the auditor of the Company, to determine the purchase price range of the Offered Shares. The Management Board meeting must be held within eight (8) calendar days after receipt by the Chairman of the Management Board of the Transferor Shareholder Notice on the Purchase Price.

The independent auditor shall, to the best of his knowledge and understanding and based on internationally reputed and recognised company valuation methodology for companies operating in the sector in which GBSA (as such company is defined in article 17.4. below) operates, determine a purchase price range of the Offered Shares as of the date of the Transfer Notice. In calculating the purchase price range of the Offered Shares the independent auditor must take into consideration the Offered Shares' illiquidity and the percentage the Offered Shares represents in the Company's share capital (the Independent Auditor Report). No such report will be required if the Company should have been provided with an Independent Audit Report at any time in the twelve preceding months computed as from the Transfer Notice (the Former Report). If that were to be the case, then the Independent Auditor responsible for the Former Report shall be requested to adjust the Former Report to the extent so required to accommodate any material change between the former Transfer Notice triggering the Former Report and the current Transfer Notice.

Within thirty (30) calendar days after its appointment, the independent auditor shall prepare and deliver the Independent Auditor Report to the Chairman of the Management Board, to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and to the Transferor Shareholder (the Audit Report Delivery Date). Should the Purchase Price fall within the purchase price range of the Offered Shares indicated in the Independent Auditor Report, the purchase price of the Offered Shares shall be the Purchase Price. If this were to be the case, the independent auditor's fees should be borne by the Transferor Shareholder. However, should the Purchase Price fall outside the purchase price range of the Offered Shares indicated in the Independent Auditor Report, the purchase price of the Offered Shares should be the extreme of the purchase price range of the Offered Shares indicated in the Independent Auditor Report closest to the Purchase Price. If this were to be the case, the independent auditor's fees should be borne by the Company.

(f) The Chairman of the Management Board shall notify the Non-Transferor Shareholders by registered means, with copy to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, of the proposed Transfer of Share(s) in writing stating the purchase price of the Offered Shares and the number of Offered Shares in respect of which each Non-Transferor Shareholder may exercise its pre-emptive acquisition right at the earliest ten (10) and at the latest twelve (12) calendar days after (i) the Purchase Price Notification under 7.2.2. (c) or (ii) the Competitor and Purchase Price Notification under 7.2.2. (d), as the case may be in case the Transferor Shareholder agrees with the Purchase Price or within eight (8) days of the Audit Report Delivery Date in case the Transferor Shareholder initially disagreed with the Purchase Price (the Non Transferor Shareholder Notification).

(g) Any Non-Transferor Shareholder wishing to exercise a right of pre-emption (the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders) should indicate the maximum number of Shares he/she wishes to acquire up to the total number of the Offered Shares (the Requested Shares) by notifying the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the Chairman of the Management Board of his/her intention to do so within a term of fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of the Non Transferor Shareholder Notification. It shall be deemed that the intention to exercise has been notified, if appropriate, on the date of remittance of the relevant notice, provided that such notice is remitted within the initial term of fifteen (15) calendar days and is received on or before the fifth calendar day immediately following expiry thereof (the Deadline). Otherwise, it shall also be deemed that the pre-emptive acquisition right has lapsed.

(h) Within a term of eight (8) calendar days after the Deadline, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall distribute among the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders the Offered Shares. Such distribution shall be made in a proportion equal to dividing each individual Exercising Non Shareholder's participation in the Company by the aggregate participation in the Company held by all of the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders in conjunction.

If the number of Offered Shares so distributed to any Exercising Non Transferor Shareholder is in excess of the Requested Shares, then the allocation would only be made up to the Requested Shares, and the excess Offered Shares would remain for further allocation.

Any Offered Shares remaining after the initial distribution made above shall then be distributed in a second round among the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders who should have requested a number of Offered Shares in excess of those allocated (the Remaining Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders). Such second round distribution shall be made in a proportion equal to dividing each Remaining Exercising Non Transferor Shareholder's participation in the Company by the aggregate participation in the Company held by all of the Remaining Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders. This process shall be repeated as many times as may be required until (i) no unallocated Offered Shares remain or until (ii) no Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders offering to acquire a number of Offered Shares in excess of those allocated remain.

For the above purposes, in the calculation of the aforementioned percentages, decimals equal to or above 0.5 shall be rounded up and decimals under 0.5 shall be rounded down.

If at the end of the allocation mechanism, all of the Offered Shares should have been allocated, then the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall inform the Exercising Non-Transferor Shareholders and the Transferor Shareholder, and shall call the Transferor Shareholder to execute the relevant share transfer agreement(s) within one (1) month after the remission of this notification.

If at the end of the allocation mechanism, all of the Offered Shares should not have been allocated, and given that the Transferor Shareholder cannot be obligated to transfer a different number of shares to the Offered Shares, the exercise by the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders shall be conditional on the exercise by the Company of the Company's pre-emptive acquisition right over all of the remaining Offered Shares (the Remaining Offered Shares) in the terms of section (i) below.

(i) If at the end of the allocation mechanism, all of the Offered Shares should not have been allocated, then the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall convene a General Meeting within eight (8) calendar days as of the Deadline to resolve with the quorum and majority requirements set forth under 10.2. (iv) herebelow, [unless the agenda of the meeting should indicate that the acquisition of the Shares should be accompanied at the same time by a decrease of the share capital and the cancellation of the relevant Shares, in which case the quorum and majority requirements will be those set forth under article 10.2.(v), whether the Company wishes to exercise its pre-emptive acquisition right over the Remaining Offered Shares, subject to the conditions of articles 6.6. or 6.7. The General Meeting must be held thirty three (33) calendar days as of the Deadline.

(j) Within eight (8) calendar days after the said General Meeting has been held, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall send a further notification to all the shareholders whereby:

- he shall inform that the Company has exercised its right of pre-emption over the Remaining Offered Shares and shall call the Transferor Shareholder to execute the relevant share transfer agreement(s) within one (1) month after the remission of this notice; or

- he shall inform that the Company has not exercised its preemptive right, or that any such exercise of the preemptive right has not covered all of the Remaining Offered Shares and, therefore, that the Transferor Shareholder may proceed to carry out the transfer to the Transferee under the terms and conditions indicated in the Transfer Notice and provided the Transferee and the Company enter into a reciprocal put and call option agreement as set out in section (j) herebelow (the Final Notification).

(k) Should neither the Non-Transferor Shareholders nor the Company exercise their respective pre-emptive acquisition rights in accordance with the above provisions, or if as a result of the exercise of such pre-emptive acquisition rights not all of the Offered Shares should have been covered, then the Transferor Shareholder shall be free to transfer the Offered Shares, within a term of not more than one (1) month after the Final Notification but only on the terms and conditions as communicated to the Management Board in the Transfer Notice, provided that the Transferee and the Company enter into a reciprocal put and call option agreement by way of which (i) the Transferee shall grant a call option to the Company to enable the Company to purchase the Shares from the Transferee, paying such Shares in kind by delivering to the Transferee the number of shares in the capital of GBSA (as such company is defined in article 17.4. herebelow) proportional to his/her participation in the Company, all expenses resulting from the exercise of this call option should be borne by the Company; and (ii) the Company shall grant a put option to the Transferee to cause the Company to purchase from the Transferee the Shares of the Company in exchange for the number of shares in the capital of GBSA (as such company is defined in article 17.4. herebelow) proportional to his/her participation in the Company, all expenses resulting from the exercise of this put option, including any Corporate Income Tax payable by the Company or its subsidiaries should be borne by the Transferee.

Should the transfer and the reciprocal put and call option not be completed within the said term, the Transferor Shareholder shall be unable to transfer the Offered Shares.

(l) When the total amount of Offered Shares transferred within the preceding twelve (12) months, is higher than 3% of the Company's share capital (excluding treasury stock), any shareholder or the Company itself (if that were to be the case) acquiring the Offered Shares may pay 20% of the purchase price in cash at the moment of the execution of the transfer instrument and the balance in four (4) equal instalments during the next four years as from such execution date (plus market interest to be determined according to Luxembourg law and/or practice and to be paid at the same time than the corresponding instalment), against a bank guarantee issued by a reputable bank payable at first demand that shall also cover the market interest accrued on the outstanding principal at any given time.

7.3. The provisions of article 7.2.2. regarding the pre-emptive acquisition rights will be applied equally in relation to the transfer by any Shareholder of any rights of subscription pertaining to capital increases, in which case the terms of article 7.2.2. shall be shortened in order to allow compliance with the Law.

7.4. The provisions of article 7.2.2. regarding the pre-emptive acquisition rights will be applied equally when a shareholder proposes to grant a pledge or create any in rem right on Shares (the Proposing Shareholder), unless the below described exemption or desistment applies.

The Proposing Shareholder shall notify the Chairman of the Management Board and the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the proposed granting of pledge or creation of any in rem right on Shares and such notice shall be deemed a Transfer Notice as set out in article 7.2.2.(a) hereabove and shall trigger the procedure of article 7.2.2., unless a General Meeting (to be convened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board within five (5) days from receipt of said Transfer Notice and to be held twenty-one (21) days as from the remission of the convening notices) resolves with the quorum and majority requirements indicated in article 10.2.(iv) herebelow to exempt such notice from triggering the pre-emptive acquisition right of article 7.2.2. above, or unless further to the refusal of such exemption by the General Meeting, the Proposing Shareholder decides to desist from his proposal to grant a pledge or create an in rem right over his or her Shares.

7.5. Transfers by way of mortis causa, dissolution of matrimonial community property and forced sales.

7.5.1. No restrictions shall apply to the mortis causa transfer of Shares when the successor heir or assignee of a deceased shareholder is a person entitled to hold Shares as set out in Article 7.2.1. hereabove. In all other cases, the Company may refuse to register the transfer in favour of the successor heir or assignee in the Company's Register of Shares provided that the Management Board sets in motion the process mentioned in Article 7.2. enabling the remaining shareholders and, in default thereof, the Company, to acquire the Shares from the heir or assignee on the same terms and conditions as are applicable to intervivos transfers, and the time periods shall run from the date on which the successor gives notice to the Management Board that he has acquired the Shares or otherwise from such time as Management Board is informed of the identity of the successor, which shall be construed mutatis mutandis as a Transfer Notice.

7.5.2. The same rules of article 7.5.1. shall apply in the event the Shares are acquired by a person not entitled to hold Shares as set out in article 7.2.1. hereabove as a consequence of a dissolution of matrimonial community property.

7.5.3. The same rules shall apply in the event the Shares are acquired as a consequence of a judicial or administrative judgement to the extent the acquiror does not meet the conditions to be deemed as a person entitled to hold Shares as set out in article 7.2.1. hereabove. Notwithstanding the above, in this case the price at which the remaining shareholders registered with the Company's Register of Shares and, in default thereof, the Company, shall be entitled to acquire the Shares will be equivalent to the lowest of (i) the value paid by the third party to acquire these Shares if ascertainable, or (ii) the amount/ price at which the Shares have been adjudicated, if applicable, or (ii) the fair market value of these Shares determined by an independent auditor appointed by the Management Board.

7.6. The acquisition by any person not entitled to hold Shares as set out in article 7.2. hereabove of any holding in the Company (irrespective of the amount of shares acquired) with no or partial observance of the transferability regime contained in this article 7 shall be deemed to be a Non Permitted Transfer of Shares by the Shareholder (the Defaulting Shareholder). In such a case, the remaining shareholders registered with the Company's Register of Shares and, in default thereof, the Company, will have a call option to acquire all the Shares held in the Company by the Defaulting Shareholder for a price calculated by the Management Board by multiplying the number of Shares owned by the Defaulting Shareholder by the value of each of the Shares. For these purposes, the value of each of the Shares shall be the Annual Price (as such term is defined in article 15.1 below) but replacing the multiplying factor of 0.7 by a multiplying factor of 0.3.

7.7. The deletion, amendment or in any way or manner depletion of the effect of the transferability regime contained in Schedule I of these Articles and consequently of the articles of association of a Legal Entity Shareholder shall be deemed to be a Non Permitted Transfer of Shares by the Legal Entity Shareholder and the provisions of article 7.6. above shall apply.

Four months before the Annual General Meeting as set forth under article 12.4. herebelow (the Annual Date) and at any time upon request of the Chairman of the Management Board or of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, each Legal Entity Shareholder shall provide the Management Board and the Supervisory Board with a certified copy of its current articles of association. Should any Legal Entity Shareholder fail to provide such document within fifty (50) calendar days following the date on which the aforementioned Annual Date has lapsed or within fifty (50) calendar days following the date on which the request was made by the Chairman of the Management Board or by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, as the case may be, the Chairman of the Management Board or the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall send a final reminder to said Legal Entity Shareholder (the Final Reminder). Unless the Legal Entity Shareholder submits the requested document within one (1) month following the receipt of the Final Reminder, it shall be deemed that the transferability regime contained in Schedule I hereto has been deleted from the articles of association of the Legal Entity Shareholder and therefore the provisions of this article 7.7. shall apply.

7.8. The acquisition by any person not entitled to hold Shares as set out in article 7.2. hereabove of any holding (irrespective of the amount of shares acquired) in the Legal Entity Shareholder with no or partial observance of the transferability regime contained in Schedule I of these Articles and consequently of the articles of association of a Legal Entity Shareholder, shall be deemed to be a non Permitted Transfer of Shares by the Legal Entity Shareholder. In such a case, the remaining shareholders registered with the Company's Register of Shares and, in default thereof, the Company, will have a call option to acquire the Shares held in the Company by the Legal Entity Shareholder for the price determined in article 7.6. hereabove.

At the Annual Date and at any time upon request of the Chairman of the Management Board or of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, each Legal Entity Shareholder shall provide the Management Board and the Supervisory Board with a certified copy of its current articles of association. Should any Legal Entity Shareholder fail to provide such document within fifty (50) calendar days following the date on which the aforementioned Annual Date has lapsed or within fifty (50) calendar days following the date on which the request was made by the Chairman of the Management Board or by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, as the case may be, the Chairman of the Management Board or the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall send a final reminder to said Legal Entity Shareholder (the Final Reminder). Unless the Legal Entity Shareholder submits the requested document within one (1) month following the receipt of the Final Reminder, it shall be deemed that a third party has acquired shares in the Legal Entity Shareholder with no or partial observance of the transferability regime contained in Schedule I hereto and therefore the provisions of this article 7.8. shall apply.

7.9. Any transfer of Shares carried out in violation of the procedure established in this article 7 shall be null and void and shall not be entered into the Company's Register of Shares.

In case of decisions relating to the matters set forth under article 11.2. herebelow, written notice of any meeting of the Management Board is given to all member(s) of the Management Board twenty (20) calendar days in advance of the Management Board meeting.

(iv) No notice is required if all members of the Management Board are present or represented and if they state to have full knowledge of the agenda of the meeting. Notice of a meeting may also be waived by a member of the Management Board, either before or after a meeting. Separate written notices are not required for meetings that are held at times and places indicated in a schedule previously adopted by the Management Board.

(v) A member of the Management Board may grant a power of attorney to any other member of the Management Board in order to be represented at any meeting of the Management Board.

(vi) The Management Board can validly deliberate and act only if a majority of its members is present or represented. The resolutions of the Management Board are recorded in minutes signed by the chairman or all the members of the Management Board present or represented at the meeting or by the secretary (if any).

(vii) Circular resolutions signed by all the members of the Management Board are valid and binding as if passed at a Management Board meeting duly convened and held and bear the date of the last signature.

In case all Shares are in registered form, the convening notices for said General Meetings must contain the agenda and may be sent by registered letters at least twenty-one (21) calendar days before the holding of the General Meeting. In case the required presence quorum is not reached at the first General Meeting, a second General Meeting is to be held and must be convened in accordance with the same procedure set forth hereabove for the first General Meeting. Art. 11. Supervisory Board.

11.1. Composition of the Supervisory Board

(i) The Company is supervised by a supervisory board (the Supervisory Board) composed of at least three (3) and at the maximum ten (10) members who will need to be natural person shareholders complying with the conditions set out in Article 7.2. (a), (b) or (c).

(ii) The Supervisory Board shall elect a Chairman and a Secretary.

(iii) The Annual General Meeting with the quorum and majority requirements set forth under 10.2. (iv) hereabove appoints the members of the Supervisory Board and determines their number, remuneration and term of their office in accordance with the Articles. Each 91,000 Shares voluntarily grouped together shall propose to the General Meeting the appointment of one (1) member of the Supervisory Board.

In order to exercise this right, two months before the date of the Annual General Meeting, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall send out to all the shareholders of the Company a document inviting the proposal for appointment of members to the Supervisory Board in the fifteen (15) following calendar days. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board will then convene a Meeting of the Supervisory Board. At such Meeting the Supervisory Board shall (i) record the proposal for appointment received by each 91,000 Shares grouped, (ii) draw up a list with all proposals for appointment received for the positions open for appointment and (iii) convene the Annual General Meeting and include in the agenda the list of proposals for appointment of members of the Supervisory Board, which list shall be put to the vote of the Annual General Meeting.

The terms and conditions for exercising this grouping right and the procedure to be followed by the Supervisory Board in these cases shall be regulated in the internal regulation of the Supervisory Board (the Internal Regulation).

(iv) Members of the Supervisory Board will serve for a term of office not exceeding three (3) years and may be subsequently re-elected on one or more occasions for additional terms not exceeding three (3) years. If within any given year, the office of a member of the Supervisory Board becomes vacant, such office will continue vacant until the next Annual General Meeting.

(v) The Supervisory Board shall regulate its own innerworkings and the further development of any competences entrusted by these Articles by way of an Internal Regulation. An affirmative two thirds (2/3) vote of the members to the Supervisory Board shall be required in order to amend the Internal Regulation. In case a two-thirds affirmative vote would theoretically imply the vote of a fractional number of members of the Supervisory Board because of the number of members on the Supervisory Board at a given time, in case the decimal of such fractional number is equal to or above 0.5, the fractional number shall be rounded up to the nearest full number and in case the decimal of such fractional number is below 0.5, such decimal shall be ignored.

11.2. Powers of the Supervisory Board

The following decisions by the Management Board shall require the prior recommendation of the Supervisory Board (the Major Decisions) following the procedure under article 11.3. herebelow:

(i) approval of the strategic business plan of the Company and all of its Subsidiaries (as defined in Article 17.4. below);

- (ii) proposal of dividends to be paid by the Company;

11.3. Procedure

- (i) The Supervisory Board meets whenever a decision entering within its duties is to be taken, upon request of a member of the Supervisory Board or of a member of the Management Board at the place indicated in the notice. For the purpose of article 11.2. hereabove, the Supervisory Board meets upon request of the Chairman of the Management Board who must convene the Supervisory Board ten (10) calendar days in advance for the holding of a meeting and in any case such that said meeting can be held before the relevant Management Board Meeting.
- (ii) Subject to Article 7 and unless otherwise indicated, written notice of any meeting of the Supervisory Board will be given to all members of the Supervisory Board at least ten (10) calendar days in advance (not including the day of remission and the day of the meeting), except in case of emergency, the nature and circumstances of which are set forth in the notice of the meeting.
- (iii) No notice is required if all the members of the Supervisory Board are present or represented and if they state to have full knowledge of the agenda of the meeting. Notice of a meeting may also be waived by a member of the Supervisory Board, either before or after a meeting. Separate written notices are not required for meetings that are held at times and places indicated in a schedule previously adopted by the Supervisory Board.
- (iv) A member of the Supervisory Board may grant a proxy to any other member of the Supervisory Board in order to be represented at any meeting of the Supervisory Board.
- (v) The Supervisory Board can validly deliberate and act only if two-thirds (2/3) of its members is present or represented. In case a twothirds presence would theoretically imply the presence or representation of a fractional number of members of the Supervisory Board because of the number of members on the Supervisory Board at a given time, in case the decimal of such fractional number is equal to or above 0.5, the fractional number shall be rounded up to the nearest full number and in case the decimal of such fractional number is below 0.5, such decimal shall be ignored. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board are validly taken by simple majority of the votes of the members of the Supervisory Board present or represented. In case the Supervisory Board should not be able to reach a vote with regard to the Major Decisions, any three (3) members of the Supervisory Board acting jointly may directly convene a General Meeting of Shareholders for the recommendation of the relevant Major Decision to the General Meeting who shall recommend the relevant Major Decision with the quorum and majority requirements set forth under article 10.2. (v) hereabove.
- (vi) The resolutions of the Supervisory Board are recorded in minutes signed by all the members of the Supervisory Board present or represented at the meeting.
- (vii) A meeting of the Supervisory Board may also be held remotely, by telephone or video conference, provided that (i) this is so indicated in the notice sent to convene the meeting, and (ii) the majority of the members of the Supervisory Board do not object to the holding of the meeting in such manner in writing to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board within seven (7) calendar days in advance to the date in which the meeting is intended to be held. The participation by these means is deemed equivalent to a participation in person at a meeting duly convened and held.

(viii) Circular resolutions signed by all the members of the Supervisory Board are valid and binding as if passed at a Supervisory Board meeting duly convened and held and bear the date of the last signature.

- (ix) Any member of the Supervisory Board having an interest conflicting with that of the Company in a transaction carried out by the Company or by the Subsidiaries, must advise the Supervisory Board thereof and cause a record of his statement to be mentioned in the minutes of the meeting. The member(s) of the Supervisory Board concerned may not take part in these deliberations. The foregoing shall also apply when in the opinion of the majority of the remaining non-conflicted members of the Supervisory Board, a member of the Supervisory Board should have an interest conflicting with that of the Company in a transaction carried out by the Company or by the Subsidiaries. A special report on the relevant transaction(s) is submitted to the shareholders before any vote, at the next General Meeting. An interest conflicting with that of a Subsidiary(ies), including but not limited to GBSA (as both such terms are defined in article 17.4 herebelow) shall be deemed to be an interest conflicting with that of the Company.

(x) Any member of the Supervisory Board who at any time during the term of his appointment should have an interest conflicting with that of the Company as defined under article 11.3. (ix) hereabove, or with the Business (as such term is defined in article 7.2.2.(c) above), must advise the Chairman of the Supervisory Board who shall convene a General Meeting for the purpose of confirming the eligibility, of such member to continue serving as a member of the Supervisory Board or to resolve otherwise in accordance with the quorum and majority requirements of article 10.2. (iv) hereabove.

(xi) The foregoing shall also apply when in the opinion of the majority of the remaining non-conflicted members of the Supervisory Board, a member of the Supervisory Board should have an interest conflicting with that of the Company as defined under article 11.3. (ix) hereabove, or with the Business (as such term is defined in article 7.2.2.(c) above, in which case either the Chairman of the Supervisory Board acting at the request of such majority or any three members of the Supervisory Board acting jointly, shall convene a General Meeting for the purpose of confirming the eligibility of such member to continue serving as a member of the Supervisory Board or to resolve otherwise in accordance with the quorum and majority requirements of article 10.2. (iv) hereabove.

(xii) In the event that the General Meeting should decide that the conflicting interest renders the conflicted member ineligible, then such member shall be removed at that same General Meeting and his position shall remain vacant until the following Annual General Meeting.

IV. Profits - Supervision

Art. 12. Financial year and Approval of annual accounts.

12.1. The financial year begins on the first (1) of September and ends on the thirty-first (31) of August of each year.

12.2. Each year, the Management Board prepares the balance sheet and the profit and loss account, as well as an inventory indicating the value of the Company's assets and liabilities, with an annex summarising the Company's commitments and the debts of the officers, members of the Management Board and statutory auditors towards the Company.

12.3. One month before the Annual General Meeting, the Management Board provides documentary evidence and a report on the operations of the Company to the statutory auditors, who then prepare a report setting forth their proposals.

12.4. The Annual General Meeting shall be convened by the Supervisory Board and shall be held at the address of the registered office or at such other place in the municipality of the registered office, as may be specified in the notice sent by the Supervisory Board, on the last Tuesday of February of each year at noon. If such day is not a business day in Luxembourg, the annual General Meeting is held on the following business day.

12.5. The Annual General Meeting may be held abroad if, in the absolute and final judgement of the Management Board, exceptional circumstances so require.

Art. 13. Statutory auditors/Réviseurs d'entreprises.

13.1. The operations of the Company are supervised by one or several statutory auditors (commissaires).

13.2. The operations of the Company are supervised by one or several réviseurs d'entreprises, when so required by law.

13.3. The General Meeting with the quorum and majority requirements set forth under 10.2. (iv) hereabove appoints the statutory auditors/réviseurs d'entreprises and determines their number, remuneration and the term of their office, which may not exceed six (6) years. Statutory auditors/réviseurs d'entreprises may be re-appointed.

Art. 14. Allocation of profits.

14.1. From the annual net profits of the Company, five per cent (5%) is allocated to the reserve required by Law. This allocation ceases to be required when the legal reserve reaches an amount equal to ten per cent (10%) of the share capital.

14.2. The General Meeting with the quorum and majority requirements set forth under 10.2. (iv) hereabove determines how the balance of the annual net profits is allocated. It may allocate such balance to the payment of a dividend, transfer such balance to a reserve account or carry it forward in accordance with applicable legal provisions.

14.3. Interim dividends may be distributed, at any time, under the following conditions:

(i) interim accounts are drawn up by the Management Board;

(ii) these interim accounts show that sufficient profits and other reserves (including share premium) are available for distribution; it being understood that the amount to be distributed may not exceed profits made since the end of the last financial year for which the annual accounts have been approved, if any, increased by carried forward profits and distributable reserves and decreased by carried forward losses and sums to be allocated to the legal or a statutory reserve;

(iii) the decision to distribute interim dividends is taken by the Management Board within two (2) months from the date of the interim accounts; and

(iv) in their report to the Management Board, as applicable, the statutory auditors or the réviseurs d'entreprises must verify whether the above conditions have been satisfied.

V. Determination of annual price

15.1 Between September 1 and November 30th of each year, the Management Board shall calculate the Annual Price. The Annual Price shall be calculated by dividing the Company Value (as defined below) by the total number of Shares issued by the Company at the close of the latest financial year immediately preceding, excluding treasury stock owned by the Company itself or by its Subsidiaries. The Company Value shall be the average value in the three (3) preceding financial years closed, resulting from the following formula (the Company Value):

$$\text{Company Value} = ([\text{NBV} + (\text{B} \times 10)]/2) \times 0.7$$

"NBV" being the net consolidated book value of the group controlled by the Company and "B" the Company's share in the consolidated profits after tax in the group controlled by González Byass & Co., Limited (a subsidiary company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales), without extraordinary results. For the purposes of calculating the Company Value, extraordinary results shall mean the aggregate of (i) the result (positive or negative) derived from the transfer (in exchange of cash or assets or any other type of transfer) of any tangible, intangible, financial or real estate asset owned by any of the companies of the group controlled by the Company and (ii) income or expenses of significant amount that are not considered as recurrent when evaluating the future results of the companies belonging to the group controlled by the Company. For this latter purpose, an income or an expense would fall under the present definition when, considering the market where the company operates, the transaction that leads the income or the expense fulfils the following two conditions: (a) it falls out of the ordinary activities and (b) it does not expect to occur on a frequent basis.

15.2 The Annual Price proposed by the Management Board shall be submitted to the recommendation of the Supervisory Board at the meeting of the Supervisory Board to be held under article 11.1 (iii) above.

15.3 The Annual Price shall thereafter be submitted to the approval of the Annual General Meeting with the quorum and majority requirements set forth under 10.2. (iv) hereabove, and if so approved, shall be valid from the date of the said General Meeting to the date of the Annual General Meeting of the following financial year. To the extent that the Annual General Meeting does not approve the Annual Price proposed by the Management Board, then the Annual Price approved by the latest Annual General Meeting shall apply.

VI. Dissolution - Liquidation

16.1. The Company may be dissolved at any time, by a resolution of the General Meeting, acting in accordance with the conditions prescribed for the amendment of the Articles under article 10.2. (v) hereabove.

16.2. The General Meeting appoints one or several liquidators, who need not be shareholders, to carry out the liquidation and determines their number, powers and remuneration. Unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting, the liquidators have the broadest powers to realise the assets and pay the liabilities of the Company.

16.3. The surplus after the realisation of the assets and the payment of the liabilities is distributed to the shareholders in proportion to the shares held by each of them.

VII. General provisions

17.1 Unless otherwise specified in the Articles or by the Law, a notice, notification or other document may be served by the Company upon any shareholder, either personally, or by sending it through the post or courier in a prepaid letter, envelope or wrapper addressed to such shareholder, at his address as appearing in the Company's Register of Shares.

All notices/notifications directed to be given to the shareholders shall, with respect to any share to which persons are jointly entitled (except in the case of usufruct and bare ownership of shares where notices will be given to both), be given to the person who has been designated as being the owner of the share towards the Company, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the co-owners of such share.

Any summons, notice, notification, order or other document required to be sent to or served upon the Company, or upon any officer of the Company may be sent or served by sending it through the post or courier in a prepaid letter, envelope, wrapper, addressed to the Company or such officer at the Office.

Any notice, notification or other document, if served by post or by courier, shall be deemed to have been served on the third day following the day on which the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the same is put into the post or delivered to the courier service, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the notice or document was properly addressed and put into the post as a prepaid letter.

17.2. Powers of attorney are granted by any of the means described above. Powers of attorney in connection with the Management Board, or as the case may be, the Supervisory Board meetings may also be granted by a member of the Management Board, or as the case may be, a member of the Supervisory Board, in accordance with such conditions as may be accepted by the Management Board or the Supervisory Board as applicable.

17.3. Signatures may be in handwritten or electronic form, provided they fulfil all legal requirements to be deemed equivalent to handwritten signatures. Signatures of circular resolutions or resolutions adopted by telephone or video conference are affixed on one original or on several counterparts of the same document, all of which taken together, constitute one and the same document.

17.4. Unless otherwise indicated in these Articles, Subsidiaries shall mean any and all companies in which the Company has a direct or indirect holding all the way down to González Byass, S.A., a company incorporated under the laws of Spain, or any successor company which should replace González Byass, S.A. (GBSA).

17.5. All matters not expressly governed by the Articles shall be determined in accordance with the Law and, subject to any non waivable provisions of the Law, any agreement entered into by the shareholders from time to time.

SCHEDULE 1 TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF GONZÁLEZ BYASS & CO. LTD S.A., SOCIÉTÉ ANONYME

Art. 1. Transfer of Shares.

1.1. In so far as the Company remains a shareholder of González Byass & Co. Ltd S.A. ("GBCO") any transfer of shares of the Company, as defined below, shall be subject to the limitations established in this article to comply with the terms set forth in article 7 of GBCO's Articles of Association (hereinafter referred to as "GBCO Art. 7"), included as Schedule 1 to these Articles.

1.2. All transfers of shares (and transfer of shares) shall mean any transfer undertaken in any manner indicated in Articles 1.3 to 1.9 herebelow, including but not limited to Transfer of Shares as defined under 1.3. here below, transfer by way of enforcement..., but excluding transfer mortis causa) shall require, in addition to the mandatory requirements of the governing law of the Company: (i) a transfer instrument in writing signed by transferor and transferee and (ii) entering in the Company's Register of Shares of a declaration of transfer duly dated and signed by the transferor and the transferee or by their authorised representatives, and by the Company to evidence acceptance.

1.3. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Company's Register of Shares.

Any transfer of shares shall be subject to the provisions of Articles 1.3 to 1.10 herebelow and shall be accompanied by such evidence as the Board may require establishing that the transfer is made in compliance with the terms and conditions of such provisions.

The Board may therefore decline to register any transfer of shares (whether fully paid up or not) in the event that the evidence provided should not prove satisfactory.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this article, no transfer of shares shall be registered where the transferee is in a position to wield substantial influence over any firm or company which is in competition with GBCO or any of its Subsidiaries and specifically with González Byass, S.A. (GBSA), as established in GBCO Art. 7.

1.4. Intervivos transfers.

A shareholder may freely proceed with a Transfer of Share(s) held by him/her to any person entitled to acquire shares in the capital of GBCO, as defined in GBCO Art. 7.2.1.

For the purposes of this article, the expression "Transfer of Share(s)" means any transaction which has as a purpose, or will result in, the transfer of Share(s) or of a right in rem on Share(s), for valuable consideration or for free, the granting of options to purchase or sell Shares or the conclusion of a swap or another agreement, so that a complete or partial transfer of the economic benefits, the ownership, or the voting rights of the Share(s) shall occur, regardless of whether such a transaction is realized by means of delivery of securities, in cash or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, any transfer of Share(s) resulting from any corporate reorganization of the Company such as contributions, exchange transactions, transfer of universality of assets, mergers, de-merger, absorptions, conversions, migrations, liquidations or similar transactions shall constitute a Transfer of Share(s).

An acquisition by the Company of its own Shares (whether issued as redeemable shares or not) initiated by any shareholder of the Company who directly offers part or all of his Shares of the Company to the Company for redemption shall not constitute a Transfer of Share(s) -and the above procedure shall not apply. This article shall, however, apply to those Shares offered to the Company for redemption which the Company is not in a position to acquire, as per the provisions established in the relevant law to have a company acquire its own shares.

1.5. Any Transfer of Share(s), other than a Transfer of Share(s) made under article 1.3, shall be subject to the following provisions:

(a) Notice of Transfer: A shareholder (the Transferor Shareholder) who proposes to undertake a Transfer of Share(s) shall notify the Chairman of the Board of the proposed transfer in writing, stating the identity of the transferee (the Transferee), the price or consideration of the Shares intended to be transferred (the Offered Shares), the payment terms and the remaining terms and conditions of the proposed transfer (the Transfer Notice). The Transfer Notice shall also include a representation made by the Transferor Shareholder that the Transferee has been informed (i) of the pre-emptive acquisition rights provided for in this article and (ii) that in case the Transferor Shareholder is free to transfer the Offered Shares pursuant to section (i) below, the Transferee shall enter into a reciprocal put and call option agreement with GBCO as set out in GBCO Art. 7. The Transferor Shareholder shall attach to the Transfer Notice a copy of the firm and irrevocable purchase offer made by the Transferee.

Within two (2) calendar days after receipt of the Transfer Notice, the Chairman of the Board shall notify the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO and the Chairman of the Management Board of GBCO of the proposed Transfer of Share(s) (the GBCO Transfer Notice).

Should the Chairman of the Management Board of GBCO or the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO consider that the Transferee is a competitor (as defined in GBCO Art. 7) of GBCO, or of any of its Subsidiaries, and specifically of GBSA, or belongs to a competitor group of companies, either one of them shall, within two (2) calendar days after receipt of the GBCO Transfer Notice, convene a general meeting of GBCO to be held twenty-one (21) days after remission of the convening notices (the GBCO Competitor General Meeting) and notify the Chairman of the Board (who, within two (2) calendar days, shall notify the Transferor Shareholder) and the other corporate body of GBCO (the Competitor General Meeting Notice) so that the GBCO Competitor General Meeting resolves about the proposed Transfer of Share(s), either approving or denying it, for which a resolution shall be passed in accordance with GBCO Art. 7. The decision adopted by the GBCO Competitor General Meeting will be binding for the Company.

In case the GBCO Competitor General Meeting denies the proposed Transfer of Share(s), the resolution shall expressly set out that it is based on the fact that the Transferee is a competitor of the Company or of any of its Subsidiaries or belongs to a competitor group. In such a case, the Chairman of the Board shall notify the Transferor Shareholder within the three (3) calendar days following the holding of such GBCO Competitor General Meeting.

(b) Determination of Price: The Chairman of the Board shall calculate the Annual Price. The Annual Price shall be calculated by dividing the Company Value (as defined below) by the total number of Shares issued by the Company at the closing of the financial year immediately preceding, excluding treasury stock owned by the Company itself or by its Subsidiaries.

The Company Value shall be equal to its net book value once the shares owned by the Company in GBCO's capital have been valued at GBCO's Value determined according to article 15.1 of GBCO's Articles of Association.

The Annual Price shall thereafter be submitted to the approval of the Annual General Meeting of the Company, and if so approved, shall be valid from the date of the said Annual General Meeting to the date of the Annual General Meeting of the following financial year. To the extent that the Annual General Meeting does not approve the Annual Price, then the Annual Price approved by the latest Annual General Meeting shall apply.

(c) Notice of Price: In case no such GBCO Competitor General Meeting is called and no Competitor General Meeting Notice is received by the Chairman of the Board (within three (3) calendar days after the receipt of the GBCO Transfer Notice), the Chairman of the Board, within ten (10) calendar days after the GBCO Transfer Notice, shall give a notice to Transferor Shareholder (the Transferor Shareholder Notice) of the purchase price of the Offered Shares at which the remaining shareholders of the Company (the Non-Transferor Shareholders) or, as the case may be, the Company, the GBCO shareholders or GBCO may exercise their preemptive acquisition right of the Offered Shares.

In case a GBCO Competitor General Meeting is held and approves the proposed Transfer of Share(s), the Transferor Shareholder Notice shall be given by the Chairman of the Board within three (3) calendar days following the holding of such meeting.

(d) Notice of Price for the Exercise of Pre-emptive Acquisition Right: Within the applicable term indicated in point (c) above, the Chairman of the Board shall give a written notice to the Non-Transferor Shareholders and to the Chairman of the Management Board of GBCO and the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO (so that they may in turn promptly notify all the shareholders of GBCO registered in the Register of Shares of GBCO) of the proposed Transfer of Share(s) stating the purchase price of the Offered Shares and the number of Offered Shares in respect of which each Non-Transferor Shareholder, the Company, the GBCO shareholders and GBCO may each exercise their respective pre-emption acquisition rights.

(e) Exercise of Pre-emptive Acquisition Right by Shareholders of the Company. Distribution Mechanism: Any Non-Transferor Shareholder wishing to exercise a right of pre-emption (the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders) should indicate the maximum number of Shares he wishes to acquire up to the total number of the Offered Shares (the Requested Shares), by notifying the Chairman of the Board his intention to do so within a term of fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of the notice referred to in section (d) hereabove. It shall be deemed that the intention to exercise has been notified, if appropriate, on the date of remittance of the relevant notice, provided that such notice is remitted within the initial term of fifteen (15) calendar days and is received on or before the fifth calendar day immediately following expiry thereof (the Company Deadline). Otherwise, it shall be deemed that the pre-emptive acquisition right has lapsed.

Within a term of five (5) calendar days after the Company Deadline, the Chairman of the Board shall distribute among the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders the Offered Shares, in a proportion equal to dividing each individual Exercising Non Shareholder's participation in the Company by the aggregate participation in the Company held by all of the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders in conjunction.

If the number of Offered Shares so distributed to any Exercising Non Transferor Shareholder is in excess of the Requested Shares, then the allocation would only be made up to the Requested Shares, and the excess Offered Shares would remain for further allocation.

Any Offered Shares remaining after the initial distribution made above shall then be distributed in a second round among the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders who should have requested a number of Offered Shares in excess of those allocated (the Remaining Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders). Such second round distribution shall be made in a proportion equal to dividing each Remaining Exercising Non Transferor Shareholder's participation in the Company by the aggregate participation in the Company held by all of the Remaining Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders. This process shall be repeated as many times as may be required until (i) no unallocated Offered Shares remain or until (ii) no Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders offering to acquire a number of Offered Shares in excess of those allocated remain.

For the above purposes, in the calculation of the aforementioned percentages, decimals equal to or above 0.5 shall be rounded up and decimals under 0.5 shall be rounded down.

If at the end of the allocation mechanism, all of the Offered Shares should have been allocated, then the Chairman of the Board shall inform the Exercising Non-Transferor Shareholders and the Transferor Shareholder, and shall call the Transferor Shareholder to execute the relevant share transfer agreement within one (1) month after the remission of this notification.

If at the end of the allocation mechanism, all of the Offered Shares should not have been allocated, and given that the Transferor Shareholder cannot be obligated to transfer a different number of shares to the Offered Shares, the exercise by the Exercising Non Transferor Shareholders shall be conditional on the exercise of the First, Second and Third Subsidiary Preemptive Acquisition Rights, so that at the end of the exercise of any such rights all of the remaining Offered Shares (the Remaining Offered Shares) shall have been acquired.

Notice of the outcome of the pre-emptive acquisition rights by the Shareholders of the Company and of the result of the distribution mechanism, if any, shall be provided within eight (8) days as of the Company Deadline by the Chairman of the Board to all the shareholders of the Company, to the Chairman of the Management Board of GBCO and to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO.

(f) First Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Right: right of the Company: If at the end of the allocation mechanism under (d) hereabove, all of the Offered Shares should not have been allocated, then the Chairman of the Board of the Company shall convene a general meeting of the shareholders of the Company (a General Meeting) by registered letter within ten (10) calendar days as of the Company Deadline to resolve whether the Company wishes to exercise its pre-emptive acquisition right over the Remaining Offered Shares, subject to the provisions of applicable company law governing the right of a company to acquire its own shares. The General Meeting must be held at the latest thirty (30) calendar days as of the Company Deadline.

Within eight (8) calendar days after the General Meeting has been held, the Chairman of the Management Board shall send a further notification to all the shareholders of the Company and to the Chairman of the Management Board of GBCO and to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO (the Company First Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Right Exercise Notice), whereby:

- he shall inform that the Company has exercised its right of pre-emption over the Remaining Offered Shares and shall call the Transferor Shareholder to execute the relevant share transfer agreement within one (1) month after the remission of this notice; or

- he shall inform that the Company has not exercised its pre-emptive acquisition right, or that any such exercise of the pre-emptive right has not covered all of the Remaining Offered Shares and, therefore, that the Second Subsidiary Pre-emption Acquisition Right shall be triggered, in the terms of section (g) below.

In any event, if the Company should not have exercised its pre-emptive acquisition rights over all of the Remaining Offered Shares and given that the Transferor Shareholder cannot be obliged to transfer a different number of shares to the Offered Shares, any exercise by the Company shall be conditional on the exercise of the Second and Third Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Rights, so that at the end of the exercise of any such rights all of the Remaining Offered Shares shall have been acquired.

(g) Second Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Right: right of the Shareholders of GBCO. Distribution Mechanism: If there should be any Remaining Offered Shares then the Chairman of the Management Board of GBCO shall send out a notice within two (2) calendar days after receipt of the Company First Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Right Exercise Notice (the GBCO Shareholders Information Notice) to all the shareholders of GBCO registered in the Register of Shares of GBCO at the time (the GBCO Shareholders), informing them of their right to exercise a Second Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Right over any of the Remaining Offered Shares within a term of fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of the GBCO Shareholders Information Notice. Any GBCO Shareholder wishing to exercise such Second Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Right (the Exercising GBCO Shareholder) should indicate the maximum number of Offered Shares he wishes to acquire up to the total number of the Remaining Offered Shares (the Remaining Requested Shares), by notifying the Chairman of the Management Board of GBCO and the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO of his intention to do so within a term of fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of the GBCO Shareholders Information Notice. It shall be deemed that the intention to exercise has been notified, if appropriate, on the date of remittance of the relevant notice, provided that such notice is remitted within the initial term of fifteen (15) calendar days and is received on or before the fifth calendar day immediately following expiry thereof (the GBCO Deadline). Otherwise, it shall be deemed that the preemptive acquisition right has lapsed.

Within a term of five (5) calendar days after the GBCO Deadline, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO shall distribute among the Exercising GBCO Shareholders the Remaining Offered Shares, in a proportion equal to dividing each individual Exercising GBCO Shareholder's participation in GBCO by the aggregate participation in GBCO held by all of the Exercising GBCO Shareholders in conjunction.

If the number of Remaining Offered Shares so distributed to any Exercising GBCO Shareholder is in excess of the Remaining Requested Shares, then the allocation would only be made up to the Remaining Requested Shares, and the excess Remaining Offered Shares would remain for further allocation.

Any Remaining Offered Shares after the initial distribution made above, shall be distributed in a second round among the Exercising GBCO Shareholders who should have requested a number of Remaining Offered Shares in excess of those allocated (the Remaining Exercising GBCO Shareholders) Such second round distribution shall be made in a proportion equal to each Remaining Exercising GBCO Shareholder's participation in GBCO divided by the aggregate participation in GBCO held by all of the Remaining Exercising GBCO Shareholders. This process shall be repeated as many times as may be required until (i) no unallocated Remaining Offered Shares remain or until (ii) no Exercising GBCO Shareholders offering to acquire a number of Remaining Offered Shares in excess of those allocated remain

For the above purposes, in the calculation of the aforementioned percentages, decimals equal to or above 0.5 shall be rounded up and decimals under 0.5 shall be rounded down.

Notice of the Exercise of the Second Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Right and of the result of the distribution mechanism shall be provided, within an eight (8) calendar days as of the GBCO Deadline, by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO to all the shareholders of GBCO and to the Chairman of the Board of the Company, whereby:

- he shall inform that the Exercising GBCO Shareholders have not exercised their Second Subsidiary Pre-emptive Right, or that any such exercise of any such pre-emptive right has not covered all of the Remaining Offered Shares, in which case the provisions of section (h) below apply.

In any event, if the Exercising GBCO Shareholders should not have exercised their pre-emptive acquisition rights over all of the Remaining Offered Shares and given that the Transferor Shareholder cannot be obligated to transfer a different number of shares to the Offered Shares, any exercise by the Exercising GBCO Shareholders shall be conditional on the exercise of the Third Subsidiary Pre-emptive Acquisition Rights, so that at the end of the exercise of such right all of the Remaining Offered Shares shall have been acquired.

(h) Third Subsidiary Pre-emptive Right: right of GBCO: If there should be any Remaining Offered Shares at this stage, then the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of GBCO shall convene a general meeting of the shareholders of GBCO (the GBCO General Meeting) by registered letter within ten (10) calendar days as of the GBCO Deadline to resolve whether GBCO wishes to exercise its Third Subsidiary Pre-emptive right over any and all of the Remaining Offered Shares, subject to the conditions on repurchase of Shares included in sections 6.6. and 6.7. of the GBCO's Articles of Association, to the extent so applicable. The GBCO General Meeting must be held at the latest thirty-three (33) calendar days as of the GBCO Deadline.

- he shall inform that GBCO will acquire all the Remaining Offered Shares and call the Transferor Shareholder to execute the relevant share transfer agreements within one (1) month after the delivery of this notice; or

- he shall inform that GBCO has not exercised its Third Subsidiary Pre-emptive right, or that any such exercise of any such preemptive right has not covered all of the Remaining Offered Shares, in which case the provisions of section (i) below shall apply.

(i) Should none of (1) the Non-Transferor Shareholders, (2) the Company, (3) the GBCO Shareholders, (4) GBCO have exercised their respective pre-emptive acquisition right, or if they should have exercised such right but such exercise should not have covered all of the Offered Shares (whether each one on its own or all together in aggregate), then the Transferor Shareholder shall be free to transfer the Offered Shares within a term of not more than one (1) month after the Final Notification but only on the terms and conditions set forth in the Transfer Notice, provided that the Transferee and GBCO enter into a reciprocal put and call option agreement with GBCO as set out in Article 7.2.2 (k) of the Articles of Association of GBCO.

(i) When the amount of Offered Shares, transferred in aggregate within the preceding twelve (12) months, is higher than 3% of the Company's share capital (excluding treasury stock), any Exercising Non Transferor Shareholder and / or the Company itself (if that were to be the case) and/or the Exercising GBCO Shareholders and/or GBCO acquiring the Offered Shares may pay 20% of the purchase price in cash and the balance in four (4) equal instalments during the next four years (plus market interest).

The decision adopted by the general meeting of GBCO will be binding for the Proposing Shareholder and/or the Company.

1.7.3. The same rules shall apply in the event the Shares are acquired as a consequence of a judicial or administrative judgement to the extent the acquiror does not meet the conditions to be deemed a person entitled to hold Shares as set out in article 1.3 here above. Notwithstanding the above, in this case, the price at which the remaining shareholders registered with the Company's Register of Shares and, in default thereof, the Company and, in default thereof, GBCO's shareholders and, in default thereof, GBCO, shall be entitled to acquire the Shares will be equivalent to the lowest of (i) the value paid by the third party to acquire these Shares if ascertainable, or (ii) the amount/ price at which the Shares have been adjudicated, if applicable, or (iii) the fair market value of these Shares determined by an independent auditor appointed by the Board.

Unless the Company submits the requested document within one (1) month following the receipt of the Final Reminder, it shall be deemed that the transferability regime contained in article 1.4 hereabove has been deleted from the articles of association of the Company and therefore the provisions of this article 1.8. shall apply.

1.9 The acquisition by any person not entitled to hold Shares as set out in article 1.3 here above of any holding (irrespective of the amount of shares acquired) in the Company with no or partial observance of the transferability regime contained in these Articles, shall be deemed to be a non permitted Transfer of Shares by the Defaulting Shareholder. In such a case, the remaining shareholders registered with the Company's Register of Shares and, in default thereof, the Company and, in default thereof, GBCO's shareholders and, in default thereof, GBCO, will have a call option to acquire the Shares held in the Company by the Defaulting Shareholder for the price provided for in article 1.8 hereabove.
