Table "A" excluded

2. The Regulations contained in Table "A" in the First Schedule to the Law shall not apply except so far as the same are repeated or contained in these Regulations. It is understood that when the company has one member only part III of Table "A" of the First Schedule of the Companies Law Cap.113 is adopted.

Preliminary

3. The company is a private company and accordingly:

(a) the right to transfer shares is restricted in manner hereinafter prescribed;

(b) the number of members of the company (exclusive of persons who are in the employment of the company and of persons who having been formerly in the employment of the company were while in such employment and have continued after the determination of such employment to be members of the company) is limited to fifty. Provided that where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the company jointly they shall for the purpose of this regulation be treated as a single member;

(c) any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the company is prohibited;

(d) the company shall not have power to issue share warrants to bearer.

(e) Whenever the company has one member only the following provisions will apply:

(i) The sole member exercises all powers of the General Meeting provided always that the decisions which will be taken by the member in the General Meeting will be written in the minutes or will be prepared in writing.

(ii) Agreements made between the sole member and the company are written in the minutes or prepared in writing unless they are related to the running operations of the company which are conducted in the normal way.

Business

4. The company shall pay all preliminary and other expenses and enter into, adopt or carry into effect and take over or continue (with such modifications, if any, as the contracting parties shall agree and the board of directors shall approve), any agreement or business or work reached or carried on (as the case might be) prior to incorporation, as the company may decide.

Share capital and Variation of rights

5. The shares shall be at the disposal of the company which may by ordinary resolution allot or otherwise dispose of them, subject to regulation 3, and to the provisions of the next following regulation, to such persons at such times and generally on such terms and conditions as they think proper, and provided that no shares shall be issued at a discount, except as provided by section 56 of the Law.

6. Unless otherwise determined by the company in general meeting, any original shares for the time being unissued and not allotted and any new shares from time to time to be created shall, before they are issued, be offered to the members in proportion, as nearly as may be, to the number of shares held by them. Such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the company may, subject to these regulations, dispose of the same in such manner as it thinks most beneficial to the company. The company may, in like manner, dispose of any such new or original shares as aforesaid, which, by reason of the proportion borne by them to the number of persons entitled to such offer as aforesaid or by reason of any other difficulty in apportioning the same, cannot in the opinion of the company be conveniently offered in manner hereinbefore provided.

7. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any shares in the company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine.

8. Subject to the provisions of section 57 of the Law, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the company are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the company before the issue of the shares may by special resolution determine.

9. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of shares of that class) may, whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these regulations relating to general meetings shall apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.

10. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

11. The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 52 of the Law, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said section and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of 10 per cent of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to 10 per cent of such price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

12. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the company as holding any shares upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these regulations or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

13. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgement of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all his shares or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment of 12 1/2 cents for every certificate after the first or such less sum as the directors shall from time to time determine. Every certificate shall be under seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. In respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

14. If a share certificate be defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of a fee of 12 1/2 cents or such less sum and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the company of investigating evidence as the directors think fit.

15. The company shall not give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase of subscription made or to be made by any person or for any shares in the company or in its holding company, nor shall the company make a loan for any purpose whatsoever on the security of its shares or those of its holding company, but nothing in this regulation shall prohibit transactions mentioned in the provision to section 53(1) of the law.

Lien

16. The company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares standing registered in the name of a single person for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this regulation. The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

17. The company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.

18. To give effect to any such sale the directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

19. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

Calls on shares

20. The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen day's notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the directors may determine.

21. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.

22. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

23. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding 8 per cent per annum as the directors may determine, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

24. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these regulations be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of nonpayment all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become Payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. The directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

25. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) 5 per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the directors and the member paying such sum in advance.

Transfer of shares

26. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

27. Subject to such of the restrictions of these regulations as may be applicable, any member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the directors may approve.

28. The directors may decline to register the transfer of a share to a person of whom they shall not approve, and they may also decline to register the transfer of a share on which the company has a lien.

29. The directors may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:

(a) a fee of 12 1/2 cents or such lesser sum as the directors may from time to time require is paid to the company in respect thereof;

(b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and

(c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.

30. If the directors refuse to register a transfer they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

31. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year.

32. The company shall be entitled to charge a fee not exceeding 12 1/2 cents on the registration of every probate, letter of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, or other instrument.

33. Regulations 26 and 27 shall be read subject to the provisions of regulation 34.

34. (a) For the purposes of this regulation, where any person is unconditionally entitled to be registered as the holder of a share, he and not the registered holder of such share shall be deemed to be a member of the company in respect of that share.

(b) Except as hereinafter provided no shares in the company shall be transferred unless and until the rights of pre-emption hereinafter conferred shall have been exhausted.

(c) Every member who desires to transfer any share or shares (hereinafter called the vendor) shall give to the company notice in writing of such desire (hereinafter called transfer notice). Subject as hereinafter mentioned, a transfer notice shall constitute the company the vendor's agent for the sale of the share or shares specified therein (hereinafter called the said shares) in one or more lots at the discretion of the directors to the members other than the vendor at the price to be agreed upon by the vendor and the remaining members of the company, or, in case of difference or no such agreement, at the price which the auditor of the company for the time being shall, by writing under his hand, certify to be in his opinion the fair value thereof as between a willing seller and a willing buyer. A transfer notice may contain a provision that unless all the shares comprised therein are sold by the company pursuant to this regulation, none shall be so sold and any such provision shall be binding on the company.

(d) If the auditor is asked to certify the fair price as aforesaid, the company shall, as soon as it receives the auditor's certificate, furnish a certified copy thereof to the vendor and the vendor shall be entitled, by notice in writing given to the company within ten days of the service upon him of the said certified copy, to cancel the company's authority to sell the said shares. The cost of obtaining the certificate shall be borne by the company unless the vendor shall give notice of cancellation as aforesaid in which case he shall bear the said cost.

(e) Upon the price being fixed as aforesaid and provided the vendor shall not give notice of cancellation as aforesaid, the company shall forthwith by notice in writing inform each member, other than the vendor and other than members holding employees' shares, only of the number and price of the said shares and invite each such member to apply in writing to the company within twenty-one days of the date of despatch of the notice (which date shall be specified therein) for such maximum number of the said shares (being all or any thereof) as he shall specify in such application.

(f) If the said members shall within the said period of twenty-one days apply for all or (except where the transfer notice provides otherwise) any of the said shares, the directors shall allocate the said shares (or so many of them as shall be applied for as aforesaid) to or amongst the applicants and in case of competition pro rata (as nearly as possible) according to the number of shares in the company (other than employees' shares) of which they are registered or unconditionally entitled to be registered as holders, provided that no applicant shall be obliged to take more than the maximum number of shares specified by him as aforesaid; and the company shall forthwith give notice of such allocations (hereinafter called an allocation notice) to the vendor and to the persons to whom the shares have been allocated and shall specify in such notice the place and time (being not earlier than fourteen and not later than twenty-eight days after the date of the notice) at which the sale of the shares so allocated shall be completed.

(g) The vendor shall be bound to transfer the shares comprised in an allocation notice to the purchasers named therein at the time and place therein specified; and if he shall fail to do so, the chairman of the company or some other person appointed by the directors shall be deemed to have been appointed attorney of the vendor with full power to execute, complete and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the vendor, transfers of the shares to the purchasers thereof against payment of the price to the company. On payment of the price to the company the purchaser shall be deemed to have obtained a good quittance for such payment and on execution and delivery of the transfer the purchaser shall be entitled to insist upon his name being entered in the register of members as the holder by transfer of the shares. The company shall forthwith pay the price into a separate bank account in the company's name and shall hold such price in trust for the vendor.

(h) During the six months following the expiry of the said period of twenty-one days referred to in paragraph (e) of this regulation, the vendor shall be at liberty, (subject nevertheless to the provisions of regulation 28) to transfer to any person and at any price (not being less than the price fixed under paragraph (c) of this regulation) any share not allocated by the directors in an allocation notice. Provided that, if the vendor stipulated in his transfer notice that unless all the shares comprised therein were sold pursuant to this regulation, none should be so sold, the vendor shall not be entitled, save with the written consent of all the other members of the company, to sell hereunder only some of the shares comprised in his transfer notice.

(i) Any share may be transferred by a member to the spouse, child or remoter issue or parent, brother or sister of that member or to a company beneficially owned or controlled by such member and any share of a deceased member may be transferred by his personal representatives to any widow, widower, child or remoter issue or parent, brother or sister of such deceased member and shares standing in the name of the trustees of any deceased member may be transferred upon any change of trustees to the trustees for the time being of such will; and where the member is a body corporate any share may be transferred by such member to its subsidiary or holding company or to a company controlled by such holding company.

The rights of pre-emption hereinbefore conferred in this regulation shall not arise on the occasion of any such transfer or transfers as aforesaid and regulation 28 shall be read subject to this paragraph.

Transmission of shares

35. In the case of the death of a member the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.

36. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that member before his death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.

37. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer was a transfer signed by that member.

38. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.

Provided always that the directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days the directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Forfeiture of shares

39. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

40. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice), on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

41. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time, thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.

42. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.

43. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.

44. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director or the secretary of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

45. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Conversion of shares into stock

46. The company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.

47. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; and the directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

48. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

49. Such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

Alteration of capital

50. The company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.

51. The company may by ordinary resolution:

(a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;

The company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the company and that of the next. Provided that so long as the company holds its first annual general meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the directors shall appoint.

54. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

55. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 126 of the Law. If at any time there are not within Cyprus sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any two members of the company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.

Notice of general meetings

56. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the company other than an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by fourteen days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be described by the company in general meetings, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company;

Provided that a meeting of the company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this regulation, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:

(a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and

(b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

57. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Proceedings at general meetings

58. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.

59. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, two members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

60. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.

61. The Chairman, if any, of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

62. If at any meeting no director is willing to act as chairman or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

63. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

64. At any general meeting any resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded

(a) by the chairman; or

(b) by at least two members present in person or by proxy; or

(c) by any member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

65. Except as provided in regulation 68, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

66. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall not have a casting vote.

67. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.

68. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.

69. In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

73. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

74. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. Capitalisation of profits

130. The company in general meeting may upon the recommendation of the directors resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution, amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively or paying up in full unissued shares or debentures if the company to be allotted, distributed and credited as fully paid up to and amongst such members in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other, and the directors shall give effect to such resolution:

Provided that a share premium account and a capital redemption reserve fund may, for the purposes of this regulation, only be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares.

131. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed the directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares of debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the directors to make such provisions by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as they think fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members entitled thereto into an agreement with the company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or (as the case may require) for the payment up by the company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such members.

Audit

132. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with sections 153 to 156 (both inclusive) of the Law.

Notices

133. A notice may be given by the company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him or to his registered address, or (if he has no registered address within Cyprus) to the address, if any, within Cyprus supplied by him to the company for the giving of notice to him. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case a notice of a meeting at the expiration of 24 hours after the letter containing the same is posted, and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

134. A notice may be given by the company to the joint holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named in the register of members in respect of the share.

135. A notice may be given by the company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like descriptions, at the address, if any, within Cyprus supplied for the purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or (until such an address has been so supplied) by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

136. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner herein before authorised to:

(a) every member except those members who (having no registered address within Cyprus) have not supplied to the company an address within Cyprus for the giving of notices to them;

(b) every person upon whom the ownership of a share devolves by reason of his being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a member where the member but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting; and

(c) the auditor for the time being of the company.

137. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities whereon there is any liability.

138. Every director or other officer for the time being of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company against any losses or liabilities which he may sustain or incur in or about the execution of his duties including liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings whether civil or criminal in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under section 383 of the Law in which relief is granted to him by the Court and no director or officer of the company shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen to or be incurred by the company in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto. But, this clause shall only have effect in so far as its provisions are not avoided by section 197 of the Law.

139. (a) In case of an equality of votes, during any poll either at General Meetings or at the Meetings of the Board of Directors, the resolution in respect of which the equality of votes occurred, shall be referred to for examination and decision by the legal adviser of the Company at the time, whose decision is final and conclusive as if it constituted the resolution of the majority taken at the General Meeting or the Meeting of the Board of Directors, as the case might be. Where the Company has not appointed a legal advisor and neither the General Meeting nor the Meeting of the Board of Directors agree on such an appointment, the resolution shall be referred to for examination and decision by a legal advisor to be selected by the company's auditors at the time.

(b) The reference to arbitration shall occur immediately after the equality of votes is determined (unless otherwise decided by majority vote immediately after the determination of an equality of votes) and the rules under the Arbitration Law Cap 4 (or any substitution or amendment thereof, for the time being in force) shall apply.

STATUTES

In the year two thousand and eleven, on twenty second day of July
Before Us, Maître Henri HELLINCKX, notary public residing in Luxembourg.

There appeared:

Cavenham Real Return, a fund incorporated under the Laws of the Cayman Islands, with registered office at P.O.Box 10632 APO, Royal Bank House, 24, Shedden Road, George Town,

Grand Cayman, KY1-1006, Cayman Islands, represented by Régis Galiotto, notary clerk, residing professionally in Luxembourg, by virtue of a proxy signed on 20 July 2011, the said proxy, after having been signed "ne varietur" by the representative of the appearing party and the undersigned notary, will remain annexed to the present deed for the purpose of registration.

The appearing party, represented as stated here-above, have requested the undersigned notary, to state as follows the articles of association of a limited liability company (société anonyme), which is hereby incorporated:

I. Name - Registered office - Object - Duration

Art. 1. Name. There is formed a public limited liability company (société anonyme) under the name "CRR INVESTMENTS" (hereafter the "Company"), which shall be governed by the laws of Luxembourg, in particular by the law dated August 10, 1915, on commercial companies, as amended (hereafter the "Law"), as well as by the present articles of association (hereafter the "Articles").

Art. 2. Duration. The Company is formed for an unlimited duration. The Company may be dissolved, at any time, by a resolution of the shareholders of the Company adopted in the manner required for the amendment of the Articles.

The Company shall not be dissolved by reason of the death, suspension of civil rights, incapacity, insolvency, bankruptcy or any similar event affecting one or several of the shareholders.

Art. 3. Object. The object of the Company is to acquire interests in any form whatsoever, in Luxembourg or foreign companies, as well as with other business entities, the acquisition by purchase, subscription or otherwise and the disposition by sale, exchange or otherwise of shares, bonds, loans, securities and other securities of any kind, and possession, administration, development and management of its portfolio. The Company may also hold shares in other companies and do business through its branches in Luxembourg or abroad.

The Company may borrow in any form whatsoever. It may issue notes, bonds and debentures and any kind of debt and/or equity securities. The Company may lend funds including, without limitation, the proceeds of any borrowings and/or issues of debt or equity securities to its subsidiaries, affiliated companies and/or any other companies and the Company may also give guarantees and pledge, transfer, encumber or otherwise create and grant security over all or over some of its assets to guarantee its own obligations and undertakings and/or obligations and undertakings of any other company, and, generally, for its own benefit and/or the benefit of any other company or person, in each case to the extent those activities are not considered as regulated activities of the financial sector.

The Company may generally employ any techniques and instruments relating to its investments for the purpose of their efficient management, including techniques and instruments designed to protect the Company against credit, currency exchange, interest rate risks and other risks.

The Company may generally carry out any operations and transactions, which directly or indirectly favour or relate to its object.

Art. 4. Registered office. The registered office of the Company is established in Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

It may be transferred within the boundaries of the municipality by a resolution of the board of directors of the Company. The registered office may further be transferred to any other place in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg by means of a resolution of the shareholders adopted in the manner required for the amendment of the Articles.

Branches, subsidiaries or other offices may be established either in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg or abroad by a resolution of the board of directors of the Company.

Where the board of directors of the Company determines that extraordinary political or military developments or events have occurred or are imminent as determined in the sole discretion of the director(s) and that these developments or events may interfere with the normal activities of the Company at its registered office, or with the ease of communication between such office and persons abroad, the registered office may be temporarily transferred abroad until the complete cessation of these extraordinary circumstances. Such temporary measures shall have no effect on the nationality of the Company, which, notwithstanding the temporary transfer of its registered office, will remain a Luxembourg incorporated company.

II. Capital - Shares

Art. 5. Capital. The issued capital of the Company is set at thirty-two thousand euro (EUR 32,000) representing by thirty-one thousand (31,000) class A Ordinary Shares (the "Class A Ordinary Shares"), hundred (100) class A shares (the "Class A Shares"), hundred (100) class B shares (the "Class B Shares"), hundred (100) class C shares (the "Class C Shares"), hundred (100) class D shares (the "Class D Shares"), hundred (100) class E shares (the "Class E Shares"), hundred (100) class F shares (the "Class F Shares"), hundred (100) class G shares (the "Class G Shares"), hundred (100) class H shares (the "Class H Shares"), hundred (100) class I shares (the "Class I Shares"), hundred (100) class J shares (the "Class J Shares"), with a par value each of one euro (EUR 1), each, all subscribed and fully paid-up.

In addition to the issued capital, there may be set up a premium account to which any premium paid on any share in addition to its nominal value is transferred. The amount of the premium account may be used to provide for the payment of any shares which the Company may repurchase from its shareholder(s), to offset any net realised losses, to make distributions to the shareholder(s) in the form of a dividend or to allocate funds to the legal reserve.

Art. 6. Increase of capital. The share capital of the Company may be increased or reduced by a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders of the Company adopted in the manner required for amendments of the Articles.

The Company may acquire its own Shares. The acquisition shall be made in compliance with the conditions and limits established by the Law and by these Articles of Incorporation and in due consideration of any shareholders agreement entered into between the shareholders of the Company from time to time.

The Company may consequently acquire all (but, for the avoidance of doubt, not part), of the Shares of a given class of ordinary shares, (i) whenever the Board of Managers considers this to be appropriate, and (ii) in view of their immediate cancellation.

The price at which the relevant class of ordinary share shall be purchased is calculated by reference to the Distribution Amounts attaching to the relevant class of ordinary shares to be repurchased by application of the waterfall provisions set out in article 16 of these Articles of Incorporation, and shall, in addition to the Distribution Amounts, include the aggregate nominal value of the relevant repurchased and cancelled class of ordinary shares.

III. General meetings of shareholders

Art. 7. Generalities. In the case of a sole shareholder, the sole shareholder will have all the powers given the general meeting of the shareholders. In the present articles, any reference to the decisions taken or to the powers carried out by the general meeting of the shareholders will be a reference to the decisions taken or the powers carried out the sole shareholder as long as the Company has a sole shareholder. Decisions taken by the sole shareholder are recorded in minutes.

In the case of plurality of shareholders, the general meeting of shareholders properly constituted represents the entire body of shareholders of the Company. It has the broadest powers to order, carry out or ratify acts relating to all the operations of the Company within the limits of the Law.

The quorum and notice periods provided by law shall govern the notice for, and conduct of, the meetings of shareholders of the Company, unless otherwise provided herein.

Each share is entitled to one vote. Each shareholder may act at any meeting of the shareholders of the Company by appointing another person (who need not be a shareholder) as his proxy in writing, whether in original or by telegram, telex, facsimile or e-mail received in circumstances allowing the confirmation of the identity of the sender.

Except as otherwise required by Law or by these Articles, resolutions at a meeting of the shareholders of the Company duly convened will be adopted by a simple majority of those present or represented and voting.

The shareholders may also vote by writing (by way of voting forms provided by the Company) on resolutions presented to the General meeting under the condition that the written voting forms contain:

- (iv) the voting instructions (in favour, against or abstain) for each item of the agenda. The voting forms must be sent to the Company prior to the time of the meeting specified in the convening notice.

If all the shareholders of the Company are present or represented at a meeting of the shareholders of the Company, and consider themselves as being duly convened and informed of the agenda of the meeting, the meeting may be held without prior notice.

Art. 8. Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders. The annual general meetings of the shareholders of the Company shall be held, according to the Law at the registered office of the Company or in the Grand duchy of Luxembourg at such place and time as may be specified in the respective convening notices of the meetings, on June 30. and for the first time in 2012.

If such day is not a business day for banks in Luxembourg, the annual General Meeting shall be held on the precedent business day. The annual General Meeting may be held abroad if, in the absolute and final judgment of the Board of Directors, exceptional circumstances so require.

Other meetings of the shareholders of the Company may be held at such place and time as may be specified in the respective convening notices of the meeting.

IV. Management - Representation

Art. 9. Board of directors. In these articles, any reference to the board of Directors will be a reference to the sole director (as defined below and in the case where the Company has only one director) as long as the Company has a sole director.

As long as the company has only a sole shareholder, the Company can be managed by a sole director or by a board of directors composed of at least three members. Directors do not need to be shareholders of the Company.

A director may be removed with or without cause and/or replaced, at any time, by resolution adopted by the general meeting of shareholders of the Company.

Art. 10. Meeting of the board of directors. The board of directors of the Company may appoint a chairman among its members and may elect among its member one several vice presidents. It may also choose a secretary, who need not be a director, and who shall be responsible for keeping the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors of the Company and the minutes of the general meetings of the shareholders of the Company.

The board of directors of the Company shall meet upon call by the chairman or any two directors, at the place indicated in the notice of meeting which shall be in Luxembourg.

The Chairman of the board of directors (if any) will chair the general meeting and the meeting of the board of directors, but in his absence the general meeting or the board of director may appoint at the majority a chairman pro tempore for these general meetings and meetings.

Written notice of any meeting of the board of directors of the Company shall be given to all directors at least 24 (twenty-four) hours in advance of the date set for such meeting, except in case of emergency, in which case the nature of such circumstances shall be set forth in the convening notice of the meeting of the board of directors of the Company. No such written notice is required if all members of the board of directors of the Company are present or represented during the meeting and if they state to have been duly informed, and to have had full knowledge of the agenda, of the meeting. The written notice may be waived by the consent in writing, whether in original, by telefax, e-mail, telegram or telex, of each member of the board of directors of the Company.

Separate written notice shall not be required for meetings that are held at times and places prescribed in a schedule previously adopted by resolution of the board of directors of the Company.

Any director may act at any meeting of the board of directors of the Company by appointing, in writing whether in original, by telefax, e-mail, telegram or telex, another director as his proxy. Each member of the board can, at any meeting of the board, appoint another member of the board to represent him and vote on his behalf under the condition that no member of the board can represent more than one of his colleague and that at least two members of the board are physically present.

The board of directors can validly deliberate and act only if a majority of its members is present or represented.

Resolutions of the board of directors are validly taken by a majority of the votes cast. In the event that at any meeting the number of votes for and against a resolution are equal, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

In the event that any director of the Company may have any conflicting interest in any decision to be made by the board of directors, such director shall make known to the board of directors of the Company such conflicting interest and cause a record of his statement to be mentioned in the minutes of the meeting. The relevant director shall not consider or vote upon any such matter, and such matter, and such director's interest therein, shall be reported to the next following general meeting of the shareholders of the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, resolutions of the Board of Directors may also be taken by circular letter. Such resolution may be in a single or in several documents sent by regular mail, fax or e-mail. The date of such a resolution shall be the date of the last signature.

Circular resolution does not apply in the case that the Company is managed by a Sole Director.

Art. 11. Minutes of the board of directors. The minutes of the meeting of the board of directors will be signed by all the directors present or represented at the meeting. The minutes of the resolutions taken by the sole director will be signed by the director.

Copies or excerpt of the minutes to be used before courts or anywhere else will be signed by the chairman, the secretary (if any) or by two directors.

Art. 12. Powers of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors is vested with the broadest powers to perform or cause to be performed all acts of disposition and administration in the Company's interest in compliance with the corporate object. All powers not expressly reserved by the Law or by the Articles to the General Meeting fall within the competence of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may delegate its powers to conduct the daily management and affairs of the Company and the representation of the Company for such daily management and affairs to any member or members of the Board of Directors, officers or other agents who need not be shareholders of the Company, under such terms and with such powers as the Board of Directors shall determine.

The Board of Directors is also authorised to appoint a person, either director or not, for the purposes of performing specific functions at every level within the Company.
